HARRISBURG, Feb. 25.—The Washington street and Scotland Lane site, offered by the City of New Castle for construction of an armory was "generally approved" by the State Armory Board meeting here this afternoon. Gen. Albert J. Logan, senior member, informed International News Service.

"The site was generally approved by the board subject to corrections as to the amount of land and other minor matters," General Logan stated.

Notice of the approval was to be sent to the chamber of commerce which sponsored the movement for construction of the armory, he said.

Representatives of the armory board were in New Castle recently, inspecting possible sites for the armory.

The state has already allotted the appropriation necessary to build the armory in New Castle.

PA NEW OBSERVES

New Castle will play host to several hundred fans from Butler, Pa., Friday when the New Castle high school basketball team battles Butler high for the championship of section three on the George Washington floor.

A man crossing South Mill at Long avenue Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock received quite a scare—and he had a right to be scared, for he came within an inch of being knocked over by a coupe which had swung around the corner. Only a jump on the part of the man and quick application of brakes by the automobile driver avoided the accident.

Pa. News believes that there are more people ill right now than any other time this winter. Colds and la grippe seem prevalent and many a student and teacher are absent from their classes.

Romance Stops Noted Stage Team

The internationally famous dancing team of Fred and Adele Astaire, playing in musical comedy which has just concluded a showing in Detroit, is reported at the end of its run. The reason is Adele's impending marriage to Lord Charles Cavendish, second son of the Duke of Devonshire. She is quitting the stage to live on Lord Cavendish's estate in Ireland. Miss Astaire and her future husband are pictured in photos above.

GENEVA, Feb. 25.—A proposal by Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet foreign minister, to abolish all arms immediately as outlined in the Russian plan was voted down at today's session of the disarmament conference.

In a typical fiery address prefacing his proposal, Litvinoff accused capitalists western nations of fostering war by providing arms for the far-eastern conflict, and of seeing in war a means to end the economic crisis.

Claims War Discussed
Only Turkey joined Russia in support of the proposal.

"The question of war is discussed freely by the capitalist press of the world as a means of solution to the world's economic crisis," he said.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 25.—The slim young body of moonstruck Else Flothmeier, daughter of a minister, who had beauty and life ahead of her, today lay cold on a slab in the morgue.

The 22-year-old college girl ran naked into death in as strange an end as ever recorded in the exotic annals of the West African gold coast, where she was born.

Died Of Exposure.

In the teeth of winter's icy breath, Else hung her clothes on a blackberry bush and stumbled through the wild briars until she fell from exhaustion and exposure. Twenty-four hours after she was missing from the home of her father, Rev. Frederick Flothmeier, pastor of the Tabor Lutheran church in Olney, her nude body was found concealed in a clump of high grass. She lay face-down, sixty yards away from where she had disrobed. Her head rested on her right hand, her fist clenched, her luxuriant head of hair modestly covering her body.

Her only remaining garment was a girdle. Her shoes lay a few feet away.

Scratches On Body.

There were scratches on the girl's face and body. But Assistant Superintendent of Police Joseph Lestrang, today said these were received during her mad flight.

"This girl was subject to mental lapses," said Lestrang.

"I believe she suffered one on Tuesday, when she disappeared and wandered around in a daze until she died of exposure."

"You are sure that she was not attacked or murdered, and that the father, for instance, in Africa."

"I am certain of it," replied Lestrang.

"Thank God, for that," sobbed the pastor.

Else had started with her father on a round of parish calls on Tuesday.

TOKYO, Feb. 25.—An economic blockade of Japan by the world powers "would be tantamount to war," the Japanese foreign office informed International News Service today.

Japan could not possibly face a world boycott, a spokesman declared, revealing that this government believes such a step by the world powers would be "not impossible."

"But certainly Japan is not guilty of any such measures as demand a boycott," the spokesman said.

The foreign office revealed it had received numerous reports from its ambassadors abroad telling of the widespread talk of a boycott in foreign countries.

And every man, Henry Ford, Garner, Newt Baker, Borah, Curtis, and a real financier, Barney Baruch, and every one of 'em without a moment's hesitation said: "Why, the big bankers."

Negro Slayer Goes On Trial At Bellefonte

Killer Will Offer
Guilty Plea

(International News Service)
BELLEFONTE, Pa., Feb. 25.—Trial of Fred Collins, 37-year-old negro prison trusty, for the murder of Betty Hickock, daughter of the former state psychiatrist at Rockview prison, opened here today. An unprecedented crowd of spectators jammed the Centre county courthouse and state troopers were on duty to preserve order.

The girl, daughter of Dr. Asa L. Hickock, was stabbed to death in her home on the prison grounds on January 13 last. Collins, who had been a patient of her father, admitted the killing to prison officials a short time after her body was found in the bathroom of the house.

Had Been Trusty.

The negro was sentenced to Rockview from Beaver county in 1924 following his conviction on second degree murder charges. He had been a trusty for about three years.

Held at Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh since the day following the murder, Collins was brought here by automobile this morning, guarded by Sheriff John Boob of Centre county. County Detective Leo Boden and W. J. McFarland, deputy warden at Rockview prison.

Feeling Is High.

With feeling throughout this mountain region running high, six state policemen from Greensburg barracks were sent to maintain order. Interest of spectators, who massed about the courthouse early this morning, was heightened by burning of a large cross on the mountainside at Milesburg, four miles away, last night.

Start Trial.

Bellefonte, Pa., Feb. 25.—Selection of a jury to try Fred Collins, negro prison trusty, for the murder of Betty Hickock, daughter of the former state psychiatrist at Rockview prison, went forward rapidly here today following Collins' plea of not guilty.

The plea of not guilty, by reason of insanity, was made for Collins by Philip A. Johnson and J. Kennedy, defense counsel appointed by the court.

First juror accepted was Forrest T. Gill, a laborer living near Philipsburg, father of a 23-year-old daughter, W. H. Corman, a farmer, of Zion, and Robert Funk, steward of the Nittany Country Club here, both of whom have daughters, were the next two jurors accepted by both prosecution and defense.

Desire Local Labor On Proposed Bridge

County Commissioners Elder
And Woods To Be Present
At Letting Of Contract

County Commissioners P. O. Elder and F. R. Woods went to Harrisburg today to be present at the opening of bids for the Willow Grove bridge tomorrow.

The prime object of the visit of the commissioners is for the purpose of attempting to get the Highway Department to specify that Lawrence county labor will be employed on the bridge, and that, so far as possible, local products will be used in its construction.

The bridge will require a large amount of cement, and it is believed that this can be furnished from a local plant as well as some of the other materials.

Among the materials to be used will be a large amount of gravel. There are several gravel banks in the immediate vicinity of the proposed bridge, and provided the right price can be obtained, it is likely that this material will be furnished locally.

It is understood that there has been a disposition on the part of some of the owners of gravel banks sections of the county speculators have been attempting to lease gravel banks in the hope of unloading their product at a good profit. It is not known that any of the gravel banks in the vicinity of the proposed bridge are in the hands of speculators, but if they are, there is a possibility that gravel may have to be shipped in.

As the bridge will be about thirteen feet higher than the present structure, and the ground is low, a considerable amount of filling will be necessary.

As there are a large number of contractors bidding on the bridge, it is expected that a low price will be obtained.

Gives Bok Award To Unknown Citizen

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—"To the unknown citizen"—he who has led us through this crucial period, he who has carried on in this great national crisis and not turned back, he who is rich and he who is poor, he who has work and he who is without work, he who does the labor from which our capital comes—to him is the Philadelphia award for 1931 given."

In these simple words W. Curtis Bok, son of the late Edward Bok, founder of the Philadelphia Award, transferred the $10,000 check accompanying the award to Philadelphia's destitute and unemployed—to be administered by the committee for unemployment relief.

The audience in the academy of music that had gathered to witness the 11th award, was awe-struck for a moment last night. Heretofore, the prize and money had been given to a private and well-known citizen.

The selection, "The Unknown Citizen," was the most popular in years.

In his speech, Bok pointed out that the award was not made as a simple dramatic method of giving money to the poor or to relief work. The scope and idea of the award, he declared, was to include the entire community.

(International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 25.—Russia today warned both China and Japan that unless they ceased encroaching upon soviet rights in northern Manchuria, she would be forced to suspend traffic on the Chinese eastern railway there. Exchange Telegraph dispatches from Riga said.

Russians Planning.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 25.—The possibility of a Russian attack upon Japan in northern Manchuria, to be launched when Japan becomes a little more embroiled in the Shanghai war, was a topic of wide discussion in foreign circles here today.

Linking the pleas this week of the soviet minister of war for a strengthened red army to protect soviet interests in the far east with the reports of renewed attacks against the Japanese forces in the Harbin area, foreign diplomats conjectured that Russia may attack Japan in Manchuria.

Time Nearly Ripe.

The time was held to be nearly ripe for this, since the Shanghai area has absorbed, or is about to absorb, most of Japan's reserve army strength, with from 60,000 to 80,000 troops ready to be massed in the Shanghai area alone.

With China hitting hard here, Russia would be at an advantage in northern Manchuria, while the launching of a Russian offensive on Japan would serve to add great moral strength to the Chinese. The two countries immediately would be allied against Japan, and Japan's position would become precarious.

Seek Final Decision On Talbot State Aid Bill

Schnader Files Appeal In Case Of Talbot Bill

Status Of $10,000,000 Relief Bill Will Be Established Shortly

ARGUMENT DATE IS SET FOR MARCH 11

Supreme Court At Pittsburgh Will Hear Appeal By Attorney General

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Feb. 25.—The status of the Talbot Act, appropriating $10,000,000 to poor districts of Pennsylvania for direct relief, will be established finally and definitely within a month.

This was indicated today after Attorney General William A. Schnader filed an appeal from the ruling of the Dauphin county court and the date for argument before the State Supreme Court was set for March 11 in Pittsburgh.

The appeal was filed with the local prothonotary of the court and ordinarily an appeal would be listed for hearing when the appellate division sits here in May. Instead, argument was immediately scheduled for Pittsburgh just prior to the opening of the regular March session in that city.

Schnader's petition represented the beginning of the final move to test the constitutionality of the act. Three judges of the Dauphin common pleas court have already concurred in overruling the attorney general's objections and have termed the act legal. More than half of the $10,000,000 will be legally available for immediate distribution to poor districts if the supreme bench sustains the Dauphin court's ruling next month.

The three men having the highest rating in the examination to be conducted by these officials will be certified to the postoffice department, and from the three, Congressman J. Howard Swick will select the nominee for the job.

STIMSON CHARGES BRING REPLY FROM JAPANESE SOURCES

reply was impossible owing to the fact the communication had not been addressed to Tokyo, it was recognized that the Stimson letter was in effect a statement to the world which demanded some sort of response.

Seek Open Door
"Secretary Stimson," the spokesman said, "hopes that China will fulfill the desires of the powers and accomplish sovereignty and maintain the open door."

"In this Japan agrees, except that Japan's patience has been worn out and further non-interference is impossible in view of the continued circumstances in China."

"Japan seeks to comply with the treaty requirements, but China is unable to meet them because of her instability."

"Did England or the United States consider the nine-power treaty when their warships shelled Nanking four years ago?" the spokesman asked. "The present action is no different except that it is on a larger scale. The principle is identical."

"We repeat that our answer to the League of Nations is that China is not in a normal state. Japan will break no treaties and will seek no revisions."

Says Japan Maintains Treaty
"Secretary Stimson's letter sounds as if the United States wants to abrogate or abandon the integrity of the nine-power pact."

"We ask who has disregarded the treaty so far?"
"Japan has not proposed revision at any time, much less abolition of existing treaties. Our interpretation of the nine-power pact is that it is enforceable and applicable to China when China possesses sovereignty."

"Certainly the powers understood when they signed the treaty that China was not possessed of sovereignty and integrity throughout and hoped to apply it when these existed. The powers felt they would refrain from embarrassing China in order to encourage her unification."

"During the past ten years China has not utilized the patient attitude of the powers. If we continued to wait, where would Japanese interests be?"

"Japan is near the scene, has more nationals and greater investments in Chinese property than any other power."

"We can wait no longer. The patience of a decade is exhausted."

"Japan regards the Washington naval treaty as a wholesome part in the history of peace. We do not regard ourselves as gainers. Some think others received more than a fair share."

"The naval and subsequent treaties are unrelated, although the same delegates signed them. Secretary Stimson is mistaken in his knowledge of what happened at Washington."

"The questions of fortifications were embodied in the 1922 pact. The delegates had practically concluded their work before the Guam and Far Eastern fortification questions arose."

"Such material as in Stimson's letter to Borah is frequently used by politicians bemoaning the fact that America refrained from pushing the Guam fortifications and abandoned other naval fortifications in the Far East. This is the first time we have observed a United States cabinet member bringing up the matter in international relations."

Tokyo evening papers gave wide prominence to the Stimson letter.

The Northern column enveloped Miaoshin, the Japanese declared, leaving the place full of Chinese snipers and then proceeded westward.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 25, 6:35 p. m.—Japanese forces launched a terrific attack on the Chinese lines between Kiangwan and Miaoshin today, temporarily forcing the Chinese to retreat from their strongly fortified positions in the latter town.

An official Chinese bulletin issued from Nanking tonight declared that the Chinese forces had rallied and staged a counter-attack during the afternoon, recovering their original positions.

Casualties Heavy
Casualties in the attack and counter-attack are believed to have been extremely heavy.

The Japanese carried out their offensive against Miaoshin with the aid of heavy artillery and bombing planes, leveling surrounding villages with a deadly hail of aerial bombs and giant shells.

Japanese military headquarters claimed to have driven the Chinese far back from their original lines, but Chinese spokesmen insisted that troops retreated only a "short distance" and recovered all their lost ground in the later fighting.

Issuance of the Chinese bulletin from Nanking indicated that the Nationalist government was at last assuming direct control of the operations of the Nineteenth Route Army, now defending Shanghai with the aid of two divisions from General Chiang Kai-Shek's crack army.

From early morning, the Japanese troops advanced slowly in a northern and northwesterly direction along the Kiangwan front. They encountered stiff resistance from the Chinese, entrenched in cleverly-hidden pits and trenches throughout the area.

The Japanese column was forced to pause frequently to clear up Chinese posts whose machine-gunners persistently harassed the Japanese and were believed to have inflicted heavy casualties on the advancing troops.

The Japanese called into play the full force of their heavy artillery and airplanes assigned to the Kiangwan region. The countryside for miles around was devastated by the terrific bombardment.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 25.—Japanese forces opened a general offensive along the Kiangwan front today extending as far north as Miaoshin, five miles away, making an advance of about two-thirds of a mile in the vicinity of Kiangwan itself.

The Japanese were advancing slowly all along the line.

The hidden machine-gun posts, located at isolated posts, continued to be an effective branch of the Chinese defense, and the Chinese sharpshooters held the Japanese gains to a minimum, despite the invaders' modern equipment.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." One Of Defendants In Mortgage Bonds Case Given Acquittal By Jury Today

PROMINENT MEN ARE INVOLVED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25.—Four of the five officials of the American Bond & Mortgage company of Chicago were convicted in federal court here today for using the mails to defraud in connection with the sale of $2,400,000 worth of stock. The fifth man was acquitted by a directed verdict.

Sentence was referred by Judge Nelson McVicker, pending filing of a motion for a new trial for the convicted men and hearing of the motion Monday.

One Man Freed.
Those convicted were William Moore, Kenneth W. Moore and Harold A. Moore, all of Chicago, and Charles C. Moore of Bronxville, N. Y. Charles B. Moore of Chicago was acquitted.

The trial, during which it was alleged by the government that the men sold $2,400,000 worth of worthless mortgage bonds on the Mayflower Hotel corporation of Washington, D. C., started February 8. It was threatened with a mistrial this week when one of the jurors was stricken ill.

The case, however, continued with 11 jurors.

The trial went to the jury yesterday afternoon. A verdict was reached last night but it was a sealed court decision and was not opened until today.

Blame Robbers For Attack On Two At Club

(International News Service)

JACKSON, Mich., Feb. 25.—Believed victims of robbers, Joseph Randis, 20, was found beaten to death, and his room mate, Joseph Sowals, 21, probably fatally injured in their room at the Jackson Riding and Hunt club here today.

"It happened last night," gasped Sowals just before he lapsed into unconsciousness.

Nothing in the room had been disturbed by the killers, but the small car owned by the two young men was missing from the club's garage. Sheriff's deputies believed the slayings escaped in the car.

Sowals and Randis, described as men of regular habits, were attendants at the club. Both were fully clothed when discovered by boys living on the farm next to the club grounds where the two took their meals. When they did not appear for their breakfast this morning the boys were sent to awaken them.

strictly to observe both the letter and the spirit of her paper promises the United States is determined to rely for her own protection upon international treaties which Japan has treated as paper fences.

Stimson Gives Warning.
This is the substance of the interpretation placed upon Stimson's open letter to Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, in which he inferentially charged Japan with willful violation of the nine-power treaty and declared that this treaty could not be disregarded without abrogating all the other treaties signed at the Washington conference in 1922. Principal among these other treaties was the agreement for the limitation of naval armaments.

Stimson's mention of the American government's surrender of its then commanding lead in battleship construction and fortifications of Guam and the Philippine Islands, was interpreted as warning that unless Japan accords more strict observance to her treaty obligations this government will embark upon a naval building and shore fortification program.

Gains Support.
Prompt support for Stimson's stand was reflected from the house and senate. The senate naval affairs committee urged immediate enactment of a program authorizing construction of a navy up to treaty limits. Gratification was expressed by numerous senate leaders that Stimson had done with "throwing paper bills" at Japan and had decided upon a more positive policy.

present economic crisis. Before a select audience of economists in Washington last December 28, the following statement was made:

"No government ever succeeded in ending a crisis in any other manner but with war. Such a means of solution may have dangers ahead, but there also are dangers in not trying."

"At a time when the League of Nations council is appealing to the Far East to cease hostilities and the delegates to the disarmament conference are expressing sorrow at the bloodshed, shipment after shipment of military supplies for the continuation and increase of bloodshed is being openly sent with the consent of the respective governments."

"This proves that international differences are stronger than the desires and resolutions of pacifists."

Litvinoff concluded his address with the assurance that Russia stands ready for immediate and complete disarmament.

Truck Driver Is Burned To Death

Truck Driver From Michigan Burned To Death In Crash Near Erie

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., Feb. 25.—An unidentified truck driver was burned to death today and his hitch-hiker companion was seriously hurt when the truck, believed to be hauling automobile parts to the Railways Transport company in Detroit, went off the highway near here, crashed into a telephone pole and burst into flames.

Leo Chauvett, 19, of Saginaw, Mich., hitch-hiking his way home from Albany, N. Y., told police he did not know the truck driver nor the name of the firm he worked for. All marks of identification were burned from the vehicle and the clothing and body of the driver.

Chauvett, hurried to St. Vincent's hospital here for treatment for severe burns and bruises, said he "hitched" a ride from the driver just west of Albany. Police were attempting to establish identity of the driver through Michigan license plates on the truck.

BOYCOTTING JAPAN

CHINESE boycotts against Japanese goods are blamed by Japan for her armed invasion of Chinese territory.

No effort having been made by Tokio to settle amicably the differences between the two nations before resorting to force, the League of Nations under its covenant is required to call a world boycott against her. Japan would consider that an act of war against her, as it would the boycott congress has been asked to declare. That makes it a sort of boycott round-robin.

Congress will not declare a boycott on Japanese trade because the United States does not care to get entangled further in the mess in the Far East. Our immigration laws closing the gates to the Yellow race have provoked enough Japanese ill will.

It is not difficult to explain the disinclination of the league to resort to the boycott weapon. That is a drastic step which would have far-reaching effects and might produce international complications more serious than the one it is intended to cure. And it is not certain that a boycott would claim the support of enough members of the league to insure its enforcement without difficulties.

More and more, as the Japanese attacks increase, it appears that Tokio took all these things into account before deciding on her course of action in Manchuria and China.

DRIVING CARS TWENTY YEARS HENCE

Those who have suffered from the carelessness or ineptness of drivers of trucks and motor cars will be inclined to approve the suggestion by the head of the Bureau of Street Traffic Research at Harvard that increasingly higher qualifications will be demanded of them as the years go by and the congestion in city streets increases. Dr. McClinck thinks that in two decades the present tests will be regarded as of kindergarten quality. Ability to handle a car will not be enough; there must be a rigorous examination of the mental and physical reactions when accident threatens.

The mounting list of injuries or deaths from the automobile gives point to the argument. There is bound to be a large increase in the number of machines; they have come to be practical necessities, and it is impossible to imagine a general return to any other mode of street transportation. Where the present highways are unable to accommodate this traffic, further means to that end must be devised. Various steps have been taken in this direction already. But under any conditions the safety of both rider and pedestrian will depend in large measure upon drivers. These increasingly powerful machines, driven at increasing speed, will always be a menace under an inadequate licensing system.

What Dr. McClinck evidently foresees is tests for drivers on the highways as exhaustive as those which railway engineers or motormen now have to pass. In some respects, the strain upon the mind at the steering wheel is even greater than that upon one who guides a vehicle running a fixed course on rails. Such complete protection as the railways now offer to passengers will be difficult to secure on the main-travelled highways. Careful drivers realize the power of the car; the careless do not or will not. Twenty years may be a long look ahead; but the problem will be acute by then if nothing is done in the interim.

PURITANNICAL BRITAIN

Apparently the American people have been laboring under a misapprehension on the score that their federal, state and municipal governments carry their paternalism to the extreme of absurdity with their censorship and guarding of the public morals. Perhaps that delusion originated abroad where Uncle Sam has been accustomed to hear himself called prude and puritan.

The fact is that there is today less interference with the public's reading, thinking and entertainment in the United States than in some of the European countries that have been most critical of us. Those that have imitated the American method have not stopped at the American limits.

British film censors banned 34 films last year and took exceptions to 284. Although there is considerable "cutting" of films here the absolute banning of a film from the screen is almost unheard of. The British state is being subjected to a censorship just as severe.

In view of the fact that Hollywood movies have a virtual monopoly in England as well as the rest of Europe they have probably come in for their share of censorship and banishment, although the experience of the American movie audience has been that the European film is more "sexy" and daring than the domestic product.

There is a suspicion, not without foundation, that some American films are banned, not because they offend the moral sensitiveness of the European censor, but because they compete too successfully with the motion picture industry in the country banning them.

FEDERAL AID MONEY

Fourteen states received more money from the federal treasury than they paid into it during 1931. This means that their contribution to the support of the nation's general functions in government did not even balance the sums returned to them for their enterprises. In this classification are Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Idaho, Mississippi, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah and Wyoming.

We would not take the position that no state ought ever to get a larger disbursement for federal affairs within its boundaries than it turns into the federal treasury. That would be to stay the all-round development of the country, as it is demonstrated to be advisable in behalf of the general welfare. Nor would we overlook the fact that a part of the immense internal revenue collected from New York and North Carolina, for example, does not originate entirely within them. The big income tax payments of New York are due in part to it being the headquarters of concerns that derive a considerable share of their earnings from activities elsewhere. The tobacco tax paid by North Carolina manufacturers represents sums collected for that purpose on sales everywhere.

But when national contributions to a state vastly overmatch its federal contribution, the disposition of its members of congress to promote a fallacious federal paternalism is encouraged. Consider on that score Senator Borah, of Idaho. He is an intense advocate of a congressional appropriation for direct aid of the unemployed, rather than continued reliance on state and local relief. Idaho last year paid into the federal treasury $723,717 and got back $2,682,641.—The Indianapolis News.

When a man opens his mouth to deliver in large and rotund phrases a discourse on WOMAN, he should guard his words carefully... because everybody knows that he is really talking about his wife, or about some other woman who has cramped his style.

You should listen to what your enemies say about you. Discount their intention to hurt you, but save the small, hard kernel of their remarks that represents the truth about you. They have studied you closely. They have gone straight to your weakest part. And sometimes they know you better than you know yourself.

A little girl goes crying down the street. "What happened, child?" "Tommy hit me hard and ran away, and when I cried he laughed!" "You should have slapped him back. You shouldn't have cried. But don't you worry—you or some other little girl will get your revenge on Tommy ten years from now. He'll fall in love with one of you and you'll be giggling-heartless—and now that lad will suffer!"

Up through the gravel in the back of the house toadstools thrust themselves. The gravel was hard and formidable, the toadstools were soft and persistent.

Each year though annually defeated and destroyed, the toadstools perform this valiant feat. And though I do not like the slimy and poisonous toadstool, I admire whatever it is in the toadstool that compels him to do this thing.

An engineer for an oil company told me about the process of refining gasoline. He told me how, in the early beginnings, the refineries threw away more gasoline than they were able to refine.

But now they submit the oil to heavy pressure and "crack" it and waste hardly any at all.

A man should be able to do that to his own life. In his youth he wastes more than he uses; with increasing years his knack of enjoying life should increase. He should gain in power as his years multiply.

But does he?

LOOKING ON THE BRIGHT SIDE
Of life's numerous irritations there are some I can't escape.

There are keys which I must carry 'spite their weight and bulging shape.

Since I own an automobile, in my very best attire.

I expect on sad occasions to be forced to change a tire.

But there's made me give up smoking and henceforth to my delight I shan't need a pocket lighter which refuses to ignite.

I've a fancy pocket pencil which is often out of lead.

And a fountain pen which isn't what the advertisement said.

There are certain common evils which I patiently endure.

Such as guessing what the hour is from a watch which isn't sure.

There are countless irritations I must suffer day and night.

But no more I'll lose my temper over lighters that won't light.

On the best of days I fancy must annoyances arise.

There are flaws in every product, which the brains of men devise.

There are shoe strings which desert me on the mornings I am late.

And my ever-ready calendar seems always out of date.

My safety razor cuts me, and my soothing lotions bite.

But I'm done with looking foolish over lighters that don't light.

THE HUNGRY SHIPWRECKED SEAMAN

Every now and then, a silly little rhyme will appear in a newspaper, like this one that appeared some years ago in the Dallas News and which I now find in my old scrap-book:

The hungry shipwrecked seaman Did not grumble at his fate; He merely took a calendar And bit him off a date.

Little did that rhymester know what he had started. Somebody on the Johnstown Democrat with a nose for news, decided to look further into the case of the poor, old seaman and this is what he scooped up:

A single date, did not, of course, His stomach greatly cumber. Once more he started in to bite— This time a larger number.

It appears that the tragic news found its way into Milwaukee where the star reporter of the Sentinel came through with:

And when the calendar ran out, He did not heave a sigh. "Because," he said, "I still possess The apple of my eye."

From Milwaukee the news flew southward, landing at the desk of the cub reporter on the Louisville Post who obtained more information from the wise old sailor:

"Should apple dumplings," he declared, "I'er get beyond my reach. I know a place where I can go And find a little peach."

Continuing southward, from post to post, the news reached the up-mingham Post. Here the editor passed it properly to the "Lovelorn" columnist who advised:

And if that little peach said yes, So loving and so fair, We venture to assume that they Would shortly be a pair.

Rather a pun—almost enough to finish the hardest kind of a sailor. But evidently, he survived. For up in St. Louis, the city where beer ran freely at the time, the Times offered this wise bit of advice:

But if this peach should Throw him down, And leave him in the shade, Of course he could Turn right around And make some lemonade.

Which advice may be wise, but lemonade—from St. Louis!

A search through the newspaper files failed to disclose what finally happened to the poor shipwrecked seaman, whereupon Heavy Stuff, after an exhaustive investigation, now learns that

Banking Measure Is Lauded As Basis Of New Confidence

Glass-Steagall Legislation Believed To Offer Credit Foundation For Improving Conditions In Financial World

Benefits likely to be derived by the country from the Glass-Steagall banking bill are emphasized in press comment. Under supervision of the Federal Reserve Board, there is offered an extension of rediscounting facilities, with the prospect of eliminating fears that have been disclosed in the course of the depression. The use of gold from the vaults of the Treasury is expected to aid in producing beneficial results.

"It is a temporary measure," says the SPRINGFIELD (Mass.) UNION "which relaxes credit restrictions, for a one-year period, but which could be extended as an emergency measure if circumstances demanded. The effect upon the unemployment situation, of the release of additional credits, will be helpful in proportion as business men and the banks avail themselves of this opportunity to expand their facilities." The NEW ORLEANS ITEM voices the opinion that "there are sound reasons for opening up credit through the Federal Reserve and putting a stop to the continual pounding of prices." As to present conditions, The Item advises that they are not "going to keep the American nation from continuing to grow in real wealth, or from being permanently prosperous."

It is pointed out by the NEW YORK TIMES that indefinite credit expansion is not contemplated, while the ROCK ISLAND ARGUS emphasizes the fact that "action is discretionary with the Federal Reserve Board," and makes the "action" statement "It is argued that as the legislation is to meet an emergency, no financial inflation is under contemplation and that the idea that new currency is to pour out is a figment of the imagination." The ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS explains that the "main purpose is to pave the way for the liquidation of billions in sound securities now held by banks but not eligible for rediscounting."

"The deep-running restraint, the strength of the safeguards set up by the bill against any risk of unreasonable inflation and are most impressive," according to the BOSTON TRANSCRIPT. The BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD remarks that "it is interesting to observe that Senator Glass, who has always insisted on the strictest requirements in connection with the Federal Reserve System, is leading the movement in behalf of this amelioration of credit stringency."

"Senator Glass probably is right" in the opinion of the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, "in affirming that the privileges of the measure will not be taken advantage of as widely as some expect. At a matter of fact, few banks are suffering from a shortage of rediscountable commercial paper. The additional rediscounting privilege will operate chiefly, though not exclusively, as a fear-removing factor, and will tend to expand credit for legitimate purposes, where it has been unduly restricted because of the bankers' passion for liquidity. There is no basis for the fear, manifested in some quarters, that there will be inflation as a direct result of the liberalization of credit."

The BOISE IDAHO STATESMAN sees "not a step toward currency inflation so much as a shift in the mechanics of the Federal Reserve system which will allow it to function in the depression, as it was designed to function in normal periods." The CLEVELAND NEWS advises that "the fear of inflation in the wake of the new credit is not taken seriously, as indicated by the strong support given the measure by both parties." The FORT WAYNE NEWS-SENTINEL takes the position that "the purpose of the measure is to place the republic's banking system in the strongest possible position to resist the sinister forces of credit deflation." That paper emphasizes the legal status of a Federal Reserve note as "a statement: 'It is the obligation of the United States government; it must have behind it 40 per cent in actual gold; and it is, in addition, a first lien on the assets of all issuing banks.'"

Indorsing the present proceedings, the SOUTH BEND TRIBUNE states "The simple truth is that the Federal Reserve system has become a boarder of gold. It has $250,000,000 in gold, corresponding to $2,250,000,000 in credit, in excess of legal requirements. The Federal Reserve can enlarge the banks' credit; the banks can meet the credit demands of manufacturers and merchants; and the manufacturers and merchants can work back to normality with confidence that elimination of the actual unemployment and of the prospects of further unemployment will stimulate purchase of the merchandise that Americans desire and need."

"The measure apparently is designed to broaden the powers of the executive officials controlling the administration of finance and to trust to their judgment" according to the BUFFALO EVENING NEWS, and the NASHVILLE BANNER sees in this "another timely affirmation of the government's willingness and ability to support the banks of the nation to whatever extent may be necessary." The CHARLESTON (S. C.) EVENING POST offers the comment "The bill promises some real relief to an intolerable congestion of credit. If that assessment does not lead to an improvement in business and to a reduction in unemployment, it will be because the foundations of the old order have been shaken loose by the excessive mechanization of industry and that something much more radical than easing of credit is needed to bring back what we used to call prosperity."

Quoting statements by Senator Glass showing that "the Federal Reserve member banks are in a position to make loans in excess of those outstanding of nearly four billion dollars," the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR concludes: "As the Glass figures show, the President's campaign against hoarding is aimed at a condition and not a theory, and the depression will continue progressively worse until hoarding is stopped and courage supplants cowardice. They relegate to absurdity the fears of those who have intimated that the bill is in preparation for starting up the printing (Continued On Page Five)

But there is uniqueness in this—a long time ago he wrote to the Governor in the State of Delaware, who had by chance become his traveling companion from Washington to New York, on one of his earliest sorties at America's cup lifting:

"I am looking to you to make your half a promise a full promise. It is within my suspicion that you were a little questioning as to how far genuine was my invitation to have you join my personal company of guests in next week's jaunt on the bounding waves."

MISREPRESENTATION

If you haven't a good memory, don't be a bluffer.

Probably you have had experience when your stories told at different times do not coincide or check up.

You have found it embarrassing.

This might have been avoided if you had made a practice of telling the unvarnished truth.

But you too often make an effort to appear greater than you are.

You have wanted to impress people and so you have exaggerated facts.

But the unstable reputation you have built up has not done you any permanent good, perhaps definite harm.

You certainly cannot keep up the deception.

Bluffing is often expensive because of the financial difficulties into which it plunges you when you least expect it.

Getting a reputation as a bluffer means that you will not be trusted by anyone who has an important job to have carried out.

Perhaps your inability to land a lucrative position hinges on the fact that you are considered untruthful.

It is a serious matter to gain a reputation for misrepresentation.

PASTOR'S SERMON

"It was George Washington's remarkable character and personality that contributed most to his greatness, not his oratorical ability, his intellectual ability, his military genius nor his political power," Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the downtown First Christian church declared last night in an impressive sermon that featured a city-wide patriotic Washington service held under the congregation's auspices.

"Then to this character and personality," Dr. Bennett continued, "it can be said that his religion that contributed the most to Washington's religion, just as the religion of any other man would, served as a supporting background to his character."

The eloquent message of the pastor, delivered as the congregation's tribute to the first leader of the land, was heard by representatives of nearly ten different civic and patriotic organizations here. The church was nearly filled.

Members of the Lions club, the Uparatasa fraternity, the Phalanx fraternity, the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, the Daughters of 1812 and the Daughters of the American Revolution attended in a body and sat in reserved pews, while leaders of other groups were also in attendance in unofficial capacities.

The service from beginning to end was dedicated to the memory of Washington, the tribute resounding in prayer, in oratory and in song. Dr. Bennett's sermon came after a number of beautiful vocal offerings by the quartet, composed of Mrs. Thelma Schenk, Miss Rebecca Garvin, R. E. Johns and Samuel Lewis, and impressive organ renditions played by Mrs. Mary Virginia Patterson, organist.

Resting on the pulpit platform alongside Dr. Bennett's chair was a framed portrait of Washington done in gold. As Dr. Bennett spoke he occasionally pointed to the first president's picture, lending a striking impressiveness to his scholarly discourse on Washington's personal life. He took a fitting text from Acts 10: 23, likening Washington to the great Cornelius of Biblical days. The evening's program follows: Organ recital, "March Militaire" and "Concert Variations on America"—Mrs. Patterson. Hymn. Prayer by Dr. Bennett. Scripture reading. Announcements. Offering, "Andante." THE PARENT PROBLEM

Baby Wants To Talk And Won't Sleep

Dr. Myers Diagnoses Case And Suggests Remedies

By GARRY C. MYERS, PH. D.
Head Division Parental Education,
Cleveland College, Western Reserve University.

Writes a mother:

"Dear Dr. Myers: I read your article every day, and I certainly enjoy every line of your writings. I have been worrying about my baby. She is two and one-half years old. She won't take her naps during the day. She goes to bed after dinner; I undress her, put her sleepers on, and close her door, open her window, and she just lays in her bed and sings or says her nursery rhymes over and over. After she has been in bed an hour she is ready to get up, and calls for me to take her out of bed. When I go in and spank her, just a little, she sometimes goes to sleep, but before she does we are both nervous and all upset.

"I have tried to stay in the room and sit down beside her bed and read, but it's all the same. Today I sat an hour by her bedside and of course she stayed awake. This morning she was awake at 8, but some mornings as early as 6. She never cries, only starts to sing or talk until we are ready to get up to take her out of her bed. She sleeps alone in her room; weighs about 37 pounds and is a healthy baby. Does it harm her not to sleep in the afternoon? My friend has a boy and he goes to bed at 9 and gets up at 9, and sleeps two and one-half hours in the afternoon."

"My baby has such a vivid imagination. She looks up at the ceiling and imagines she sees dogs and just talks to them, and laughs, or be playing with her playthings, and just kick and laugh instead of letting herself go and relax and sleep.

"I suppose it is foolish on my part to worry, but actually at times I can't go to sleep at night thinking about it. When she occasionally awakens at 2 in the morning she will stay awake for two hours, sometimes longer. Why does she do that? She seldom wets her bed at night. We take her up before we go to bed, and she goes right back to sleep and goes through the night, but when she does wake up to go to the bathroom during the remainder of the night it takes her hours to go back to sleep."

Answer: Don't tell her to go to sleep. Say nothing about sleep. Therefore, do not punish her for lying awake talking to herself. She would be better without toys in her bed. Some children are quiet by the company of a doll they can caress, but she apparently would be excited by such companions.

Before she goes to bed tomorrow afternoon announce to her that after you leave her you are not going back no matter how much she calls, and that she must not get up until the clock rings or you call. When the intervals has ended, say one and one-half hours, go for her whether she has slept or not. If she continues talkative at the sleep hour for several days a scheme of rewards whereby she receives a colored star if she keeps quiet, to be pasted on a beautiful colored paper on the wall, might help.

When she talks at night say nothing. Keep in your own bed away from her and keep your lips closed, and lights off. The chances are she calls you, commands you to answer her or to wait upon her. Her interest and your distracting her prevents her sleeping.

If after you have followed these suggestions literally for a few weeks you see no improvement, better have your physician look into her case.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Manhattan Tableaux, Deep Winter: The stony and bleak desolation of penthouses, denuded of all but the hardiest plants, summery furniture stowed away with summery gayeties. Frigid butlers venturing upon the terraces, viewed from higher windows; frigid butlers with the tails of their service coats blowing; frigid butlers doubtless with ice rapidly coating their sideburns. Frigid butlers who dash hot water from pails up on the ice-coated floors. And peck meditatively at old cigarette burns in dull green end tables which were once bright green.

(Note for inquisitive souls: Penthouses, they tell me, were unheard of until five or six years ago, when tenants chanced to explore the servants' quarters, until that time situated in modest little roof-bungalows. The adventurous tenants discovered that the servants lived very attractively up there, what with the facilities for tiny gardens, plenty of view and fresh air and so on. Thus the penthouses boom began; now they are the most expensive apartment locations in a building. But it was hard on the servants, who have been moved to the basement.)

A COLUMNIST TAKES A WALK

The Grand Concourse, at dusk. A strange, suburban street, full of the town's unplumbed, unpublishing reality. Here lives New York, the city scorned of the Broadway gossip writers but the city most of her were born in. A wide, thriving parkway, lined with bright, teeming apartment houses. Names like Vista Court and Venetian Gardens and Chateau Belle Air. With names like Stein and McCarthy and Gansel and Walker and Schmidt in the bell-cards of the foyers.

Here, ladies and gentlemen, is the end of a dream—an international and a thoroughly American dream at once—here is the goal, the objective of the dusky and the bright and the hopeful faces which peer from emigrant decks of incoming steamers toward Ellis Island.

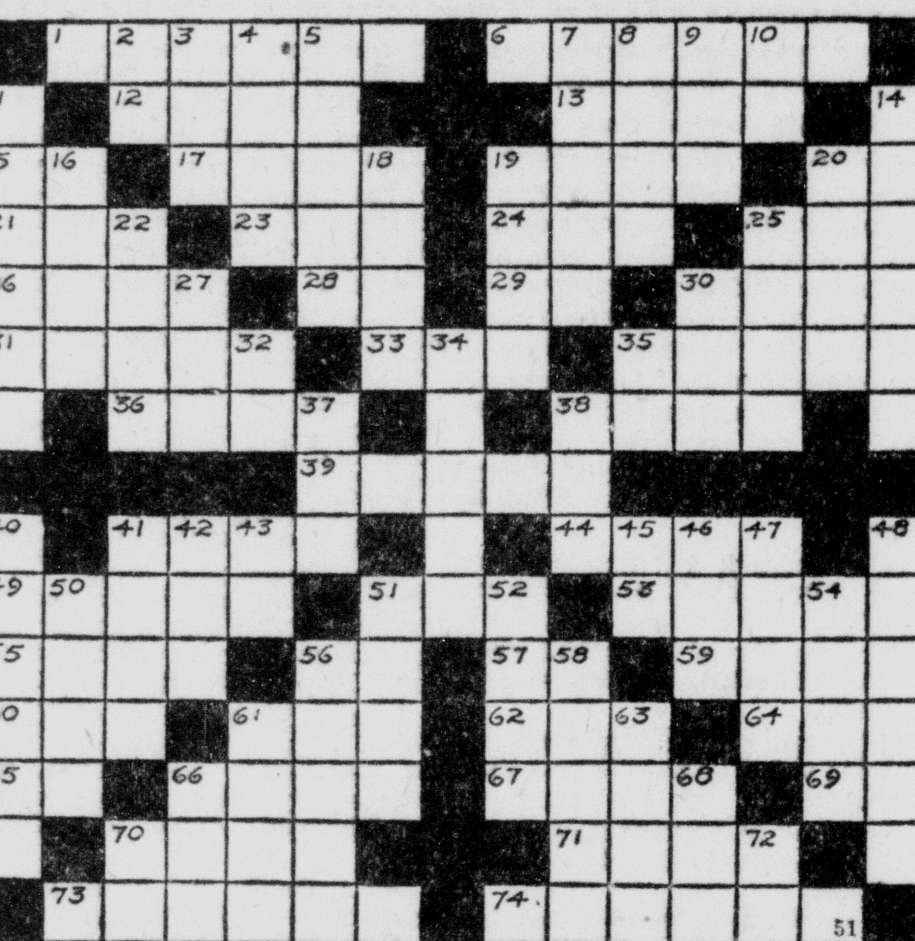

The Goal? . . . Well, rather the gigantic midway through which the lucky and the talented and the merely greedy pass on the way to Park avenue. . . . And after they've got there, after they have reached the part of New York which stands for the town in the minds of most of those who write and read about it, something of the quality of veritable New Yorkers.

Times Square? . . . There you will see yourself in duplicate—you and you and you . . . and me. But you will only find a shadow of New York on Broadway. Go to the Grand Concourse, expansive boulevard of the great middle class, and in the process the expansive middle passage of the melting pot millions. . . . The Grand Concourse and its dozens of smaller, less colorful counterparts in uptown New York.

HOP, SKIP AND JUMP

An executive of a prominent movie concern called a writer into conference the other day and demanded "a sort of Creta Garbo story written so that a new star on the order of Joan Blondell could play in it." . . . The writer is still confused, and may never recover. Husbands and wives have had a great season of teaming-up in the theater here. . . . As witness Alfred Lunt and Lynn Montagne in "Reunion in Vienna," Basil Sydney and Mary Ellis in "The Jewel Robbery," Geoffrey Kerr and June Walker in

Tunney May Run For Senate Post

Is Talked Of In Washington
As Opponent Of Senator Bingham, Republican

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent Of The New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Gene Tunney, retired heavyweight champion, doesn't have to wait for his home state, Connecticut, to start a political boom for him. He is being talked of here as a candidate in Connecticut for the lieutenant-governor's job or for a United States Senatorship.

When Governor Cross of Connecticut was inaugurated, Tunney was—and still is—a member of the Governor's staff. And Mr. Tunney completely stole the show at the Governor's inaugural ball. He's popular at home.

So now here in the Capital they are saying that Mr. Tunney may oppose Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut in the election next November. Bingham is a Republican—Tunney is a Democrat, and by all odds the Democrats seem to have the brighter outlook in the Nutmeg State just now. So they are saying Tunney may run against Bingham who comes up for re-election.

Also, Gentleman Gene is being boomed for the Democratic nomination to the lieutenant-governor's chair. That's not a difficult post, and Gene would be a credit to the State. It is argued.

Incidentally, Tunney recently gave notice that he might start a political campaign of his own by attacking prohibition and denouncing it as an impractical, expensive experiment.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Rescue vessels guided only by meager radio reports today searched for the Danish steamship Aggersund which reported it was listing badly and had

A radio message from the S. S. Montcalm said the Aggersund was badly damaged.

The Danish ship was Boston-bound from Scotland. Its normal crew consists of 25 men.

HEADACHES caused by ACID

ACIDITY haunts its victims like a shadow. No appetite; what you do eat disagrees, causes flatulence and makes you sluggish. Work is an effort. Before night, a headache.

Do you know what is wrong? An acid-soaked system! Too many acid foods. But you need not diet your way out of this difficulty! Take a tablespoonful or two of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

From the hour you relieve that acid condition you will feel like another person. Every spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia will neutralize many times as much acid. Take it when stomach nerves are over-stimulated through worry, or excitement; when everything ferments in your stomach, and waste matter is poisoning the bloodstream or whenever the bowels are clogged.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia has a gentle, laxative action. It is ever so much better for one than the harsh purgatives that upset the stomach or weaken the bowel muscles. An occasional dose of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is all that is necessary to avoid those periodical attacks of sluggishness so apt to occur with any person who does not get a great deal of physical exercise.

Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is sold at drug stores everywhere in 25c and 50c bottles. Be sure to say "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" when you buy. Then you're sure of getting the product that doctors prescribe.

Valley View Cemetery To Be Given Attention

"Donation Labor Day" To Be Held By Lot-Holders Next Thursday

That Valley View Cemetery will be given some concentrated attention this spring and by summer may once again resemble the Valley View of ten years ago was decided at Wednesday's night's meeting of some 35 lot-holders.

After the business meeting in Mahoning school last evening, presided over by Dr. T. M. Shaffer, the people who have been so interested in caring for the neglected cemetery feel greatly encouraged and believe that the repairing and re-decorating will be a matter of just a short time if the co-operation of all lot-holders is obtained.

Here are some of the results of the meeting:

(1) That a "Donation Labor Day" will take place next Thursday, March 3, and every Thursday following until the work is finished. This work will be done by lot-holders who will be willing to donate the day's work to this worthy cause.

(2) That donations of money will be received in order to pay for the erection of a fence around the grounds and with which to buy paint. Charles Owens of North Cedar street will receive all donations of money for this purpose.

(3) That a carload of crushed limestone will be obtained and placed on the roadway leading to the cemetery and on the walks through the grounds.

(4) That Valley View chapel will be given immediate repairs.

Brown States He Did Own Typing

Asks Correction Of Statement Made To Council By Treser Wednesday

C. Ed Brown, former city clerk, asked today that a correction be made of the statement before council yesterday by Councilman Treser to the effect that Mrs. Cordelia Zeigler Jones did the typing for C. Ed Brown when he was city clerk.

The facts in the case are as follows, according to Mr. Brown: He went into office as city clerk in June, 1913, at which time Mrs. Stoughton was city stenographer. When the new council went into office on December 1, 1913, Mr. Brown inaugurated a loose-leaf system of keeping the notes of council meetings and typed them out. Heretofore the minutes of council had been written out in long hand. Mr. Brown stated that he was very well able to do his own typing, having had years of experience in the newspaper business.

Mrs. Stoughton as city stenographer transcribed all the ordinances which had been done by the city stenographer before and which she continued to do as long as he was in office. Mrs. Jones came to work for the city several years after Brown did, as clerk to the city purchasing agent, having been brought in for that work by the late John B. Berger. Succeeding Mrs. Stoughton as city stenographer was Miss Catherine Granfield.

It was the duty of the city stenographer to attend council meetings and take down the notes on motions and other business, but the city clerk always wrote his own minutes.

YOUNGSTOWN BANK Plans To Reopen

Dollar Savings & Trust Co. Will Receive Help From R. F. C.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 25.—A reopening plan for the Dollar Savings & Trust Co., Youngstown's largest state bank with deposits in excess of $20,000,000 closed October 15, was announced Wednesday after approval of the directors, the state banking department and the attorney general.

The committee in charge of the reopening announced that application had been made to the Reconstruction Finance Corp. for help and assurance was received that it will be granted if the bank reopens. Similar application had been made by the City Trust & Savings Bank's reopening committee.

The Dollar Bank plan provides the freeing of all commercial deposits and all savings deposits less than $100. All larger savings deposits will have $100 immediately available plus 10 per cent. of their deposit provided they consent to leave the permission for further withdrawals to the discretion of the directors.

Stockholders of the bank agreed to purchase $750,000 debentures to provide more liquid assets for the bank.

A committee headed by Philip Schaff, local financier, will interview all the larger depositors to secure their consent to the plan.

Reopening of the Dollar Bank and the City Bank depends entirely on the speed of the depositors. The City Bank reopening plans for which had been announced some time ago, had already secured consent of 80 per cent. of its depositors.

Members of the Dollar Bank reopening committee are: Carl W. Ullman, chairman; George C. Brainerd, John W. Ford, J. Fearnley Bonnell, Frank Funnell, R. C. Steese and John Tod.

Opening of both banks is expected about April 1.

Poor Board Asks Mandamus Writ Quickly Ended

Petition Is Presented In Mercer County Court Today By Solicitor

MERCER, Feb. 25.—Attorney Edward C. Moon, solicitor for the poor board of Mercer county, filed a petition with the Mercer county court today, asking a writ of mandamus on the county commissioners, which was made returnable March 8 at 10 a. m. by Judge J. A. McLaughry.

The petition is voluminous, containing five pages of closely typed matter and fifteen sections.

Several weeks ago, the board of county commissioners, it is charged, issued an order to the county treasurer not to honor any more orders of the poor directors, who are a separate body from the commissioners in Mercer county. The commissioners contended that the funds should be kept separate, and the treasurer that it was up to the poor board to borrow their own funds until the poor taxes for 1932 became payable.

The poor directors contend that they have complied with all requirements and have made requisition for the sum of $210,000 for their use in 1932. They admit the expenditures of $32,000 which has been paid by the commissioners and ask the balance of the $210,000.

They further state that between 1920 and 1931, the sum of $276,513 had been unused from requisitions made the board.

It is the aim of the county commissioners to have the two departments and their funds maintained separately so that the poor directors shall be entirely responsible for the poor fund, and shall levy the tax necessary. This will enable the commissioners to know just how they stand and they can make a satisfactory budget for the coming year and in succeeding years, they contend.

In the meantime, the poor directors have secured credit and are carrying on their work of alleviating conditions among the poor and unemployed on credit.

Many Children Out Of School

High Schools Show Largest Percentage — Illnesses Are Not Serious

One out of every six school children in the city public schools was absent on Wednesday, due to cold, grippe or such other childish diseases as whooping cough, chicken-pox, or measles, according to a compilation of figures in the office of Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools.

The total absentees for Wednesday was 1,975, the figures show, with 1,029 of them coming from the senior, Franklin and Washington high schools. The epidemic of colds and grippe has reached a new high and if it continues to grow there seems to be a possibility of closing some schools for a couple of days.

The largest number absent from any one school are 416, out of the Benjamin Franklin junior high school. Figures for the other schools follow:

When FAT Goes Back Comes Vim

The World Way

The right way for treating obesity is now employed by doctors the world over. It is based on a new discovery—a gland cause.

Modern science finds that a great cause of excess fat lies in a scanty gland secretion. Then food which should be turned to energy simply piles up fat. Thus people grow both fat and lazy through the same gland cause.

Doctors everywhere now feed that lacking factor. They know that abnormal exercise and diet can never bring fat down, and vim back, while that lack exists.

Marmola prescription tablets do it. Start today.

Takes Sick; Falls Sustains Injuries Aged Farmer Found Victim Of Hanging

Wife Of Alleged Farmer Near Bakerstown, Pa., Finds Body Of Husband

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Feb. 25.—Believed to have become despondent over continued ill health, James L. Allison, 71-year-old farmer, hanged himself in his barn near Bakerstown, according to a morgue report today.

Baker's wife found his body when the aged farmer failed to return to the house for lunch.

Elias Barber of 209 East Lincoln avenue, sustained painful injuries about the face and right eye late last night, as he left Street car No. 396 on which he had ridden to his street, and was in the act of stepping over the curb to the sidewalk, when overcome by a sudden sick spell.

According to Mr. Barber he felt faint and sick as he was in the act of stepping over the curb and suddenly fell, unable to control his actions. Robert McCracken of R. D. No. 4 was enroute north in his automobile on Highland avenue, behind the street car, and jumped out and rendered assistance to Mr. Barber.

Small Arsenal Found

In the Elmhurst apartment, which Mrs. Kekie had rented January 19 under the name of "Mrs. Mary Krauss," police said they found one sawed-off shotgun, a quantity of ammunition to match, two pistols, a roll of 4-inch adhesive tape of the sort used to bind robbery victims and a coil of braided rope.

Mrs. Kekie told police she is a sister of Joseph Stasyk, former pal of Filkowski, who was shot and killed during a holdup in 1930.

Filkowski was arrested on 47th street, between Broadway and Sixth avenue, late yesterday by Detectives Morris and Reardon accompanied by three Cleveland officers. Describing the arrest later, the detectives admitted that they "took no chances, but simply picked up the street and hit him with it."

... IDLE DOLLARS mean IDLE MEN!

Don't let Idle Money keep men out of work . . . Will you help?

This advertisement isn't a lecture on Economics. It isn't asking for donations . . . or requesting money.

It's an appeal to your own self interest. Whether you have an income of $20 a week or $200 . . . whether you run a business or a home . . .

This is a job for everybody . . . rich and poor alike.

We've got to get America's idle dollars back to work . . . where they belong!

Don't you see what happens when a dollar's withdrawn from circulation? It slows down everything. Credit tightens. Business gets bad. Factories stop. Men are thrown out of work.

Take that same dollar . . . put it in circulation . . . and ten more are released in credit.

This credit is turned into raw materials. It keeps factories busy. It pays wages and salaries . . . your own included.

That's the problem facing America.

We're the richest nation in the world. We have the resources. We have the factories . . . the machines . . . and the men to run them.

Yes, and we have the money too . . . but we must get it back in circulation. We must get our dollars back to work . . . that is the foremost duty of every citizen of this country.

Talk to local business men in your community . . . listen to what they say and follow their advice. Put your money where it will bring interest to yourself . . . and employment to your neighbor.

That's the way to help America win this fight!

A BRIEF NOTE OF APPRECIATION TO THE PUBLISHER OF THIS NEWSPAPER

This advertisement has been printed without cost by the publisher of this great newspaper. It is a sincere patriotic contribution that merits public praise. Regardless of political beliefs or editorial opinion the Newspaper Publishers of America are doing their part to help win this fight.

CHAIRMAN
Citizens Reconstruction Organization

Idle hands result from idle money. But active money is the leaven that spreads its influence through all walks of life and through all industries. Never in the history of America has a dollar bill in circulation meant so much to our national prosperity as it does today. Let's be done with "slacker" dollars. Let's make every dollar work—for ourselves and our country!

Billy Sunday Coming Back To New Castle Wednesday, March 2

BILLY SUNDAY

Billy Sunday is coming back to New Castle. Somewhat older and grayer than he was in 1910 when he filled the Tabernacle for ten weeks, but as full of vim and vigor as he was in those stirring days. Wednesday evening, March 2, Rev. Sunday will be in the Cathedral for a mass meeting, speaking on the subject, "Booze, Foul and Out."

No one ever accused Billy Sunday of being a silk-gloved evangelist. In his virile manner he has been lashing away at sin and its handmaidens ever since that day back in 1891 when he was converted in the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago, Ill.

World Famous
Wherever religion is mentioned, Billy Sunday is known. All across the United States he has campaigned with an ardor that has brought him thousands of enemies in the liquor industry and thousands of converts to the religion of Jesus.

Christ. Colorful, forceful, unique, he has been an outstanding evangelist for thirty years.

Back in the fall of 1910 he was in New Castle, and brought with him Homer Rodeheaver, Mrs. Rae Muirhead, B. D. Ackley and a number of others who endeared themselves to the people of this city and county. Mrs. Muirhead afterwards returned to New Castle to live and work and later died in the sanitarium in New Wilmington.

Rev. Sunday has always held a place in the minds and hearts of New Castle people. Many people gave him the credit for putting Lawrence County dry in 1911, following his ten weeks series of meetings in 1910. Always he has been a bitter enemy of the saloon and the liquor industry.

When he comes to the Cathedral on March 2, the chances are that seats will be at a premium for his name is a drawing card.

Life In Prison For Boy Bandit

Youth Pleads Guilty After Youngstown Jury Dis-agrees

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 25.—Ed. J. Curry, 17, pleaded guilty today to a charge of second degree murder and was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Columbus penitentiary, in connection with the murder of Harry Jackson, dairy store attendant, last summer during an attempted hold-up.

The jury which tried Curry for first degree murder disagreed last week after being deadlocked nine to three for conviction. A new trial was scheduled within a few weeks. Assistant Prosecutor James S. Cooper recommended that the guilty plea be accepted, saying that he had no hopes for conviction without a recommendation for mercy.

Judge J. H. C. Lyon imposed the life sentence, which leaves Curry eligible for parole in from eight to 10 years.

Farm Reminders Given By State

Important Things To Do About The Farm Now Are Listed For Ruralites

Timely reminders for Lawrence county farmers are contained in the Bulletin issued by the School of Agriculture of Penn State College, as follows:

Time the Garden—If the garden has not had time for four or five years it is advisable to broadcast about five pounds of hydrated lime to every 100 square feet in the spring after the soil has been turned. Rake the lime into the top soil in preparing the seedbed.

Thin Woods Properly—Thin one-tenth of your woodlot this month. In 10 years the work will be completed. Then it can be started again and products taken out which will net a larger return. Railroad ties and small saw logs can be cut because of increased growth after the first thinning.

Care for Potted Plants—Palms and ferns should be repotted now if they need it. Other potted plants should be top dressed. These plants start very active growth at this season.

Keep Feed Clean—Experiments at the Pennsylvania State College show that coccidiosis can be reduced by using suitable feeders. Only five per cent loss of chicks occurred where droppings were kept out of the feed, while 65 per cent of the chicks died where droppings contaminated the feed.

Mare Needs Exercise—Working the brood mare carefully will keep her in better condition than if she is idle. A well-balanced ration containing plenty of protein, lime, and phosphorus is also essential.

Train Herdsmen—Training in dairy cattle and livestock management will be given in the annual Herdsman's Short Course at the Pennsylvania State College February 29 to March 5. Instruction will be given in feeding, care, disease, fitting, marketing, pedigrees, and cooperative improvement associations.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

For coughs due to colds, the best remedy that money could buy can easily be mixed at home. It saves money and gives you the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs, giving immediate relief, is astonishing. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and fill up with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. It's no trouble at all to mix, and when you once use it, you will never be without it. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children really like it. It is surprising how quickly this loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes the inflamed membranes. At the same time, part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes, and helps the system throw off the whole trouble. Even those severe coughs which follow cold epidemics, are promptly ended. Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs and bronchial irritations. Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Legion Employment Drive Has Resulted In 81,731 At Work

American Legion Posts Throughout Country Are Behind Great Campaign

Goal Is 1,000,000 Men Back At Work, New Castle Post Is Taking Part

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—Within the next few days, the American Legion Employment campaign will be in full swing in every community in Pennsylvania. It was announced here today by James J. Deighan, state adjutant of the American Legion.

Posts reported that they have employed the following number of men:

Blossburg, 17; East Greenville, 6; Homer City, 8; Mercer, 2; New Holland, 1; Quakertown, 15; Reading, 16; Royersford, 9; Stoyestown, 2.

Pennsylvania has employed a total of over 6,000 men in this campaign.

War On Depression.

The American Legion here intends making use of the already established facilities for employment in the city in connection with its share of the "war against depression". Arrangements have been completed with the officials of two employment offices here, to work in cooperation with the Legion, according to Herman Lieberman, vice-chairman of the Legion's committee.

Instead of setting up special offices for the registration of applicants with the resultant risk of interfering with and duplicating the work already performed by these two agencies, the Legion will confine its activities strictly to stimulating employment and creating jobs wherever possible, leaving the actual registration of applicants up to the two employment agencies.

81,731 At Work.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Many communities reporting their job-finding activities for the first time since the start of the united action for employment campaign were represented in the 87 whose latest results were listed at the organization's headquarters today.

A total of 81,731 persons were placed in paying occupations in the drive sponsored by the American Legion and cooperating organizations to "put 1,000,000 unemployed in jobs."

Ten communities in New York state accounted for 851 jobs in the new reports. Minneapolis, Minn., found employment for 481. Middletown, Conn., with 256 placed in gainful work, and Thomaston, Conn., with 5 kept their state in third place for the number of wage earners put back to work for the day.

Minnesota Leads.

Wisconsin, with six communities reporting action, was fourth with a total of 241 unemployed given work.

In aggregate numbers of workers employed since the drive began, Minnesota, with 13,285, still led other states.

Wisconsin was second, with 10,212, and New York state third with 9,782. Illinois was fourth with 8,283.

The afternoon session of the Gymanfu Ganu, or Singing Festival will open at 2:30 and the evening session at seven. Congregational singing will be the main feature of the day but in addition there will be solos, quartets and glee singing, the latter under the direction of Councilman D. O. Davies who conducts the Bible Class Glee club of the First Congregational church.

Griff Thomas will be the conductor of the day and will direct the congregational singing. Rev. Rhys T. Williams, pastor of the First Congregational church will be the chairman of the day and Mrs. John M. Evans the accompanist.

The Gymanfu Ganu is an ancient Welsh custom and brings together hundreds of good singers. It will be open to the public and is for nothing else than enjoying an afternoon and evening of good music.

Negro Acts In Suspicious Way

Being Held By The Police Pending An Investigation Of His Actions

James Jackson, negro, was arrested at one o'clock today by Officer Clarence Campbell in the seventh ward district, as a result of his actions in at least two homes of that part of the city. He is being held pending an investigation as to possible other homes that he may have visited.

He was first heard of at the home of Mrs. Angelo Fusco, 232 Cedar street, where Mrs. Fusco took him in and gave him something to eat. She overheard him say something to the effect that he had a lot of money.

A short time later he went to the home of Pasquale DiGennaro, 102 South Wayne street, where he is alleged to have taken a pair of glasses. This resulted in his arrest.

Mrs. Thomas Walsh Called By Death

Former Well Known Capital Society Leader Dies In Washington, D. C.

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, for many years a leader in capital society, died here today.

She was the widow of a famous Colorado mining magnate, and the mother-in-law of Edward B. McLean, Washington publisher.

Charley Hudson, colored, was engaged in an argument in the south side district last night as Officer H. L. Richards happened on the scene. Both he and his friend started on their way with the approach of the officer, then Hudson for some unknown reason came back to the officer and started to make unfavorable remarks.

The officer arrested him and started for the patrol box. Hudson resisted and the officer and Hudson went down together. Some one apparently saw this and sent in a call to police headquarters for assistance. Other officers hurried to the scene but on their arrival found that Officer Budd Fleeger had arrived on the scene and Hudson had been subdued.

After advising Hudson that he was fortunate in not having been treated roughly for his resistance, Mayor Charles B. Mayne discharged him with a warning not to repeat his offense.

DRASTIC CHANGE IN ALLEGHENY COLLEGE POLICY

New Curriculum To Be Adopted At Opening Of Fall Term

MEADVILLE, Pa., Feb. 25.—President William P. Tolley of Allegheny College announced today the details of the new curriculum which will be adopted by Allegheny beginning next fall.

The treatment of every student as a "special student" in the selection of his course of study, the introduction of survey courses and comprehensive examinations, the recognition of the educational value of extra-classroom activities as projects in self-education and their incorporation in a new "integrated program," and the raising of academic standards in the junior and senior years to the level of "university" work are a few of the significant changes proposed.

Like the recently announced policy of placing all intercollegiate athletics on a strictly amateur basis, the new curriculum reflects the progressive outlook of the members of the faculty.

President Tolley says the changes proposed are the result of a two-year study on the part of a faculty committee. The committee studied the current trends in secondary and university education, made themselves familiar with recent educational experiments and curriculum changes in other colleges, and gave special attention to Allegheny's contribution to education in the past and to its peculiar advantages and opportunities as it faces the future.

The members of the committee are Professors L. D. McLean, chairman; C. F. Ross, O. P. Akers, H. W. Church and G. E. Buckingham.

The objective of the new program is an individual curriculum for each student planned from the beginning of the freshman year, according to individual capacities, interests, needs and prospective life-work. The treatment of every student as a "special student" involves the complete reorganization of the faculty advisor system.

HOT MILLS TEAM IS LEAGUE WINNER

Specialty Team Is Defeated In Playoff Wednesday Night

Champs May Play St. Marys Team On Next Wednesday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 25.—There was no doubt left in the minds of local sports fans as to which is the best basketball team in the Shelby department league, as they watched the crack Hot Mills quint submerge the Specialty 47-20 in a playoff game for the second half title Wednesday evening before the biggest crowd of the season. Having won the first half already, last night's victory automatically gave them the league title and cup.

It was the fifth time they have defeated the Specialty out of six attempts. Their lone defeat at the Specialty's hands last Wednesday spoiled a perfect record. The Hot Mills have won 17 out of 18 games for the season to win the league title for the second consecutive year. Their record for the two seasons will withstand onslaughts for some time to come.

The Specialty could not grapple with such competition as the Hot Mills presented last night. Being angered by their lone defeat, they first proceeded to wreck their fury on the Mechanicals last Saturday whom they defeated 60-30. The game yesterday found the Hot Mills still angry.

After the first quarter the Specialty was out of the picture completely. The game was on even terms at this time. The champs drew first blood when Ursu pivoted around his guard for the first bucket. A foul by Aiello and a field goal by Hennon gave the Specialty a temporary lead which was the only time they held this distinction throughout the game. Dicky Freidhoff brought the ex-high stars of the Hot Mills out in front again as the period ended with the score standing at 4-3.

The second quarter was the start of a most unusual event. It was just giving points away when anybody fouled Captain Jim Fitzgerald. Besides running up a total of seven baskets for the game, Fitzgerald done the impossible when he counted up a nine free throws out of ten for a total of 23 points, just one shy of the league record set by his teammate, Johnny Ursu. The Hot Mills took advantage of every scoring opportunity. They held their opponents to one field goal in this stanza as they accumulated 14 more points to make the score at half-time 18-5. Clyde, Fitzgerald and Chambers accounted for the Hot Mills points while Summers got the Specialty's lone basket.

At no time in the game did the Hot Mills slacken their pace. They always outplayed and outscored their opponents until the final minutes. All of their players broke into the scoring column before the game ended. They were the masters in the third period, accumulating 13 points to the Specialty's 8. The score at the close of the third quarter was 31-13 for the Hot Mills.

Not being satisfied with a comfortable lead at the beginning of the closing chapter the champions proceeded to make their victory fool proof. While holding their rivals to seven points they added 16 more to their own total. The score at the final whistle was 47-20 for the Hot Mills.

It was a practical impossibility to stop the champions last night. When their smooth diversified attack was not functioning properly they easily obtained points from mid-floor or the sides of the court. They made baskets from every angle. The fine floor work of Dicky Freidhoff, Les Clyde, Johnny Ursu and Ben Chambers should not go unmentioned. All acquired two or more baskets. Boone and Hennon fought impressively for the losing team, the former getting two baskets.

Wife Was Fat No Longer Attractive Lost Husband's Love

The above headlines appeared in a New York newspaper of April 4 in connection with a divorce trial that has been in progress for some time. Thousands of women are getting fat and losing their appeal just because they do not know what to do. If you are fat how would you like to lose it and at the same time gain in physical charm and acquire a clean, clear skin and eyes that sparkle with buoyant health? Are gain in energy and a blend of mineral salts most helpful to body health. Best of all, a bottle of Kruschen Salts will last you for four weeks costs but a trifle. Ask Kruschen's Cut Rate, New Castle Drug Co. or any drug store for a bottle and start to lose fat today. It's the safe way to reduce but be sure you get Kruschen's—your health comes first and remember this if you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

Deafness and Head Noises From Catarrh

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, if your nostrils are clogged or if phlegm drops in your throat causing catarrh of the stomach or bowels, secure prompt treatment at once. Otherwise you may lose your health, become a worn-out catarrhal wreck with your smell, taste and hearing completely gone. Sprays, salves and inhalers may bring you temporary relief but permanent escape from this dangerous, health-sapping, disgusting disease can only come from a constitutional treatment that will expel the catarrhal poison from your system. So go to New Castle Drug, Ecker's Cut Rate or your drug store today for an ounce of Parment, take this home and add to it a little sugar and ¼ pint of water. A tablespoonful taken four times a day will act upon the blood and mucous membrane and bring relief. Think what it will mean to breathe freely again, to hear plainly, smell, taste and arise in the morning refreshed and strong, with clear head and throat free from phlegm. Certainly you cannot enjoy or benefit from anything as long as you are afflicted with catarrh. So for your own sake secure Parment a trial—start treatment today.

New Castle Plays Butler Here Friday Night

Section Three Title At Stake

Basketball Teams In Condition, Appear Evenly Matched For Contest

OPEN DOORS EARLY TO ACCOMMODATE FANS

Whether or not this city will be represented in the W. P. I. A. L. basketball tournament for the sixth time in seven years depends on the outcome of Friday night's game between Butler and New Castle high schools. Section Three title will be at stake. The game will be played on George Washington Junior high school court and will start at eight p. m.

In 1926, New Castle played in the W. P. I. A. L. tourney at Pittsburgh for the first time. New Castle returned defeated. In 1927, Coach Bridenbaugh's outfit invaded Pittsburgh again and returned victorious after the opening battle. The local team beat Duquesne in the finals and won the first basketball championship in the history of the school. New Castle was represented in the tournament the next year, 1928 and it may be of interest to know that the Red and Black had to eliminate Butler on the Pitt floor for the honor of representing the section. Defeat crossed New Castle's path in the finals. New Castle was not in the league during 1929, due to an alleged inaction of the athletic law.

Butler Blacks Path
The Red and Black had representation in the 1930 and 1931 tournaments at Pitt stadium. In neither year, however, was New Castle fortunate enough to win the league title. At the present time, New Castle has an opportunity to again feature in the tournament. The only obstacle is Butler. A victory over Butler Friday will give New Castle another chance to win the W. P. I. A. L. title. If Butler wins, the Heinzmen will be in the meet.

Butler and New Castle have established good records this season. The fans of the respective cities are firmly entrenched behind their favorite aggregation. On paper the quintets appear evenly matched. Some believe New Castle has a slight edge due to the game being on their home floor. In many instances this has meant a lot.

Aside from this, Butler fans cannot see where New Castle has anything favoring of an edge and with these class players, Keck, Lobocono, Sykes, Little and Sherman, Butler is decidedly optimistic. They believe Butler and not New Castle will represent Section Three in the tournament.

Agree Upon Officials
New Castle and Butler have been keen basketball rivals since 1927. Each succeeding battle has proved thrilling and the game here Friday night is expected to be as good as any of the past performances if not more exciting.

Coach Bridenbaugh is watching his players closely, which is evident judging from instructions to Lester "Bus" Reiber to take a rest. The coach discovered Wednesday Reiber had a cold. However, Reiber will be fit by Friday. Nick Uram, Andy Lasky, John Teplica, John Uram and Marvin are reported in good shape.

Although it was announced recently that all reserve seats had been sold, Faculty Manager Ralph Gardner today said there are 1200 seats left. These will be sold the night of the game. Washington gym will only hold 1500 fans. It is anticipated that every seat will be filled when the contest starts.

Plans are under way for handling the big crowd, according to Gardner who stated today that the doors at George Washington Junior high will be opened at 6:30 p. m. The game will start at 8 p. m. The officials in charge of the game will be Walden and McNulty of Pittsburgh according to an agreement reached by school moguls.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Mike Donovan, a little older now than he was in 1923, came forth today with the remark: "How about those Riecks of 1923?" By that he meant that the Riecks in those days of dust, plus the leaden sky and the gloom of the "Some." They captured the independent championship of the county after stirring games with the Italian Athletic association and Wampum.

One of the games went 16 innings to a 2-2 score. It had to be called off account of darkness. Paul McCullough pitched for the Riecks and Joe Hartman hurled for the Italian Athletic association. Henry Goldberg as manager of the plant sponsored the team. The lineup: Tom McCormick, c; S. McCullough, s. s.; Gerald Earl, 3b; Croud, 1b; Coen, outfield and pitcher; Chuck Travers, outfield and pitcher; Tom O'Brien, outfield; the late Paul Iman, 3b; Joe Travers, c; Reebie, 2b; Black, outfield and Walter Kirker, pitcher.

I. A. A. and Riecks' first game on the Mahoningtown grounds went 16 innings. It was windy day. Clouds of dust, plus the leaden sky and the gloom of the "Some." They spoke from engines operating in the section caused fielders to wish the game were over. It was after 16 innings. The score was 2-2. In the next two games Riecks won. Wampum won the first of the three games but dropped the last two.

What are the Riecks players of 1923 doing now? Tom McCormick is an umpire; S. McCullough continues as a player. Gerald Earl is able to spear 'em but the whereabouts of Croud is unknown unless he still resides in Beaver Valley. Coen hurls baseball and protects game. Occasionally Chuck Travers is seen along the main stem. Tom O'Brien is a constable.

Paul Iman, one of the best infielders ever to cavort around a local diamond has gone to his reward. Joe Travers is manager of St. Mary's basketball team and conducts a business. Reebie has been operating a concession during summer time at Montezuma. Black managed the Scarsboro team last summer. Walter Kirker is in Y work at Harrisburg. The manager Mike Donovan is hustling insurance and the sponsor of the Riecks is now a "big gun" with the Riecks company in Pittsburgh.

Manassa Mauler? No; Col. Dempsey!

Once upon a time Jack Dempsey was known as the Manassa Mauler. But that was some years ago. Today he is Col. Dempsey because Governor Laffoon of Kentucky made a colonel of the former heavyweight champion when Jack addressed the Kentucky assembly at Frankfort yesterday.

A bill to prohibit absolutely boxing and wrestling in the state and to make attendance by spectators upon either grounds for divorce were introduced as a joke on Dempsey.

It also would provide fines and jail terms for principals and promoters. The senate referred it to the committee on ditches and drains.

PITCHERS REPORT.
(International News Service)
FORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 25.—Connie Mack is still presenting a stiff front against holdout tactics of his ace of aces, Lefty Grove, and Rube Walberg, left wing of the A's flingers.
Leo Roy Mahaffey, veteran hurler, and Joe Bowman, formerly pitching star of Portland, reported during the night, "ack indicated he expects considerable from both hurlers this season."

Whiffles Play Saints Tonight

Jaffe Available If Whiffles Need His Services

LACKEY'S ANKLE IN GOOD SHAPE

Disciples of the floor and hoop sport will flock tonight to St. Mary's gym to see whether or not the St. Mary's aggregation is capable of turning back the Whiffles, the only basketball outfit which has been able to down St. Mary's this season.

The Whiffles, composed mostly of former stars of Youngstown schools came here not so very long ago and in the last five seconds of the game beat St. Mary's by one point, 29 to 28. Since then the Whiffles have been beating fives without much trouble.

Boosts Opponents
Coach Arnold Frizl Fraser, speaking of the Whiffles today said: "The Whiffles have one of the best teams in this section of the country. They'll be strengthened tonight by Jaffe who was ill when the first tilt was staged here."

Fraser believes, St. Mary's will come through. He reports that Lackey's ankle is now in good shape and he will be located at the pivotal point for the local outfit. Kulich and Rowe as usual will be at forwards.

The probable starting lineup:
St. Marys Whiffles
Kulich F Stevenson
Rowe C Hanna
Uble G Holt
Jones G Cocciolough
Substitutes: St. Mary's, Gennoch, Volesko, Shaffer, Melvor, Hanlon, Whiffles: Jaffe, Lyden, Hird, Reiree, Charles Guillum.

Manager Joe Travers has arranged for a preliminary game between the Young Yankees of the Catholic Church league and the Meegans. The preliminary tilt will start at 8 o'clock.

Campbell Sets Speed Record

Sir Malcolm Campbell, British Auto Racer Goes 253.968 Miles Per Hour

HAD HOPED FOR 260 MILE RECORD

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Feb. 25.—"I wanted to make 260 miles an hour or better."

Sir Malcolm Campbell, daring English race driver, made this declaration today as he announced his intention of going out again this afternoon in an attempt to shatter the new world's automobile speed record of 253.968 miles an hour, which he established only yesterday on Daytona's famous ocean speedway.

"I'm not satisfied, even if I did break my old record," Campbell told International News Service. "With any kind of a break I should be able to do much better than that."

In making 253.968 miles an hour Campbell exceeded his former world's record of 245.733 miles per hour by 8.235 miles per hour. Campbell also broke two other records—the one-kilometer and the five-kilometer marks. His new world record for the one-kilometer is 251.340 miles per hour; for the five kilometers 241.559 miles per hour.

Very Disappointed
"I'm awfully disappointed," was Campbell's reaction to his record-breaking feat. "Really, I think I'd do better today if the beach remains in good condition and I can make another try."

After all the checking up had been accomplished it was announced that Sir Malcolm had established three world's records. Here is the official time, as given out:

Titans-Allegheny To Battle Tonight

Game Tonight At Meadville Floor Will Have Bearing In District Standing

Alligators Hope To Hold Westminster To Below Fifty Points

MEADVILLE, Pa., Feb. 25.—In playing Westminster tonight and Glenville State Teachers College on Saturday night Allegheny will face the toughest night of opposition in its valiant attempt to check a slump that has been in evidence after the Methodists won 12 straight contests. Both games will be played on Montgomery gymnasium in Meadville.

Westminster at the present time is playing a brand of ball that simply turns all opposition into the class of "futile gestures" and Dick Baker, Allegheny coach, does not expect anything more of his men than a good showing. If the Alligator can hold the Titans down to a comfortable margin of defeat, Baker will feel that his men are coming out of their slump.

Brown Returns
When the Glenville Teachers make their initial visit to Meadville on Saturday night, the Baker men will be meeting a club that has played two seasons of undefeated ball in the West Virginia College Conference, and a real game is sure to result.

At the present time Baker is considerably put out over the illness of Bill Conn, center and only six-footer on the team. As an emergency measure Ross Brown, who played last year as utility guard and center, and who has not been out for the team this winter because of football injuries, has been drafted to fill Conn's role and played his first game against Carnegie Tech last week. It was this same Brown who in the game with Westminster last year dogged Brownlee's steps so closely that the tall man from New Wilmington was held to one of his lowest scores of the year.

Wesley Defeats Sokols, 19 To 18

St. Michiels Drop Exciting Game To Forest 23 To 22

GREENVILLE TEAM DEFEATS EPWORTH

Wesley M. E. vanquished Sokols of Youngstown, 19 to 18, Forest A. C. downed St. Michiels B, 23 to 22, and Reformed Aces of Greenville forced Epworth M. E. to bow 26 to 17 last night at the Y court. A big crowd witnessed the games.

The Sokols-Wesley M. E. game was everything that a basketball fan would want to see. From the first until the last whistle the outcome was in doubt and Wesley M. E. only outscored the Sokols by a lone point. Irwin, center and the Rech brothers scored a majority of the points for the visitors while Gonda, center and Massey, forward of the Sokols were the most spectacular for the visitors. The latter were threats every second of the game.

Forest A. C. St. Michiels, both of New Castle put on another fast contest and this game like the Wesley M. E.-Sokols contest was won and lost by a single point. St. Michiels led at the half by a point and won out 23 to 22. Llewellyn was the individual point star of the game.

After the Epworth M. E. had held the Reformed Ace of Greenville to a 11 to 10 score in the first half they weakened in the last half and could only score 7 to 15 points for the visiting aggregation. As a result they bowed 26 to 17. Kitch scored 12 points for the aces.

Carey Gets Vance To Sign Contract

'Dazzy' Vance Signs Brooklyn Contract For Salary Of $15,000

MAX CAREY RULES WITH IRON HAND

By LES KONKIN
International News Service Sports Writer.
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Max Carey, who stepped into a ticklish spot when he succeeded Uncle Wilbert Robinson as keeper of the playboys on the Brooklyn baseball club, had increased his prestige immensely today by the manner in which he re-did Dazzy Vance, the club's perennial holdout, into a state of complete submission yesterday.

Carey, who started out to be a sky pilot but wound up a baseball pilot, revealed for the first time that there is an iron hand in the kid glove with which he has been handling his temperamental charges.

After a brief conference at the Clearwater, Fla., training camp, Carey persuaded Vance to sign a one-year contract for an estimated sum of $15,000, a cut of $7,500 from his wage last season when the big hurler was the highest-salaried pitcher in the National league.

Must Take Turn.
What was more important from the standpoint of discipline, the new manager than added insult to injury by burning up the telegraph wires with the following statement:

"Vance will have to work when his regular turn comes, just like the other pitchers, regardless of how much rest he has had. And if we can strengthen the club by trading Dazzy or any other player, we will do it."

"There will be no stars on this team—just ball players. Vance and I are good friends, but this is a strictly business proposition."

Five Holdouts.
Vance, who in past seasons had pitched only when he felt like it, digested Carey's ultimatum and came up smiling. All of which the tip-off on Carey as a diplomat and disciplinarian.

Within the next few days, first of all, it should swing into line the other important Brooklyn holdouts—Babe Herman, Ernie Lombardi, Walker, Gilbert and Joe Shat-tle.

Shenango Ready For Mt. Jackson

Final Home Game For Shenango Will Be With Fast Mt. Jackson Team

Shenango high will play its final home game with the fast Mt. Jackson team tomorrow night. The girls of the two schools will play the preliminary game which starts at 8 o'clock.

The game Friday should be a fast one. The teams are about evenly matched. Both teams are out of the running for the title, but are natural rivals. Shenango will work hard to win this final home contest. Coach Johnston is confident that his team will come through.

The undefeated Shenango high girls will try hard and make it a no defeat season when they play the Mt. Jackson girls in the preliminary game. This Mt. Jackson team is streak of the Shenango maidens. The only mar on the Shenango high girls' record is the tie with the Union high team.

State Title Game April 2

It was announced today that the final basketball game for the championship of Pennsylvania will be played April 2. The two high schools surviving the state wide tournament will battle on this date. The place tilt will probably be enacted in the eastern section of the state.

WESTERN RESERVE TRIMS PANTHERS
Western Reserve defeated the Pitt Panthers 45-39 last night at Cleveland. The Red Cats rallied in the last part of the game to wipe out the Panthers' early lead. Charlie, forward for Reserve, caged six field goals.

New York University has dropped West Virginia from its football schedule and Purdue will replace Oregon.

SACRED HEARTS TO MEET WESLEY

Three Other Church League Floor Games On Friday

Having had the pleasure of seeing hundreds of fans leave the Y basketball court in a happy mood owing to the nifty basketball games played last night, Hen' McNicholas, the physical director at the institution, today said there ought to be some more baskets of a likeable nature Friday night when A and B games are played.

Here's the schedule:
Wesley M. E. vs Sacred Hearts, A loop
First Baptists vs First Methodists, B division.
Central Christians vs First Baptists, A circuit.
St. Michaels vs Central Christians, B roster.

McNicholas reports that the referee will blow the whistle for the first game at 8 o'clock prompt, that there'll be no waits between games and that he has made arrangements to take care of a good crowd.

Westminster And Grove City Will Play January 13

Game Arranged For Next Winter—Other Chatter Of Westminster Sport

Grove City and Westminster are not superstitious! Coach Bob Thorn of the Groves and Coach Johnny Lawther of the Titans have agreed to play the opening basketball game next season on Friday, January 13 at Grove City. Here's look.

Westminster will lose three stellar basketball players from this year's team. The three are: Captain Phil Rice, Duquesne, Pa., guard; Mike Kocharan, Duquesne, Pa., forward and Bud Brownlee, Lock Haven, Pa., center.

Westminster College basketball players who are also members of the track team are: Manno Siljander, Pittsburgh; Harry Brownlee, Lock Haven; Ray Sweeney, Youngstown; O. Bill Williams, Sharon; Bill Douglas, Tschin and Walt Young, Freeport, L. I.

Dr. G. C. Colyer, prominent sportsman of Freeport, L. I., athletic member of the Freeport school board and a close follower of Titan teams, flew by airplane to Pittsburgh last Saturday in order to see the Thiel game at New Wilmington on Saturday night, and then flew back to New York on Sunday.

Westminster has but three games left on the 1932 basketball schedule. These contests are with Allegheny, Bethany and Grove City.

In the feature game the Sharpsville boys were held to even terms in the opening quarter. From the start of the second quarter on, the Mercer County passers piled a comfortable lead and were never menaced. Union-East Brook Ready For Battle

Teams Tied For Second Place In County League To Play Friday

FINAL HOME GAME FOR UNION HIGH

Union high and East Brook will play a county league game at Union's gym tomorrow night that will have an important bearing on second place in the league. The teams are now deadlocked for the runner-up berth. The girls of the two schools will play the preliminary game.

It is the final home game for the Union high team and Sniezek and Jaworski will be coveting for the last time in front of home fans. These two boys have been the backbone of the team this year and there is no finer pair of guards in the section or Lawrence county than the Union sentinels.

Jaworski-Sniezek Finish.
East Brook will have to prevent a fast pair of forwards to get around Jaworski and Sniezek. Coach Boyd is banking on these two boys to keep the East Brook players away from the hoops. Boron and Morrison are slated for the forward berths, with Lannigan at center. Union defeated East Brook 39 to 13 earlier in the season and therefore the boys from East Brook will be out for revenge.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Rail Stocks Lead Slight Reaction

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—With the railroad stocks leading the early reaction, stocks moved into slightly lower price levels in the early trading today.

Auburn Auto started the day at 100, up 1½ points, fell off abruptly to 87 for a net loss of 11½ points and rallied to 91. General Motors dropped under 21. Liberal selling of General Electric was again in evidence, with the stock down about a point at 26½. In the rails Atchafson dropped off a point to 79. New Haven, New York Central, Southern Pacific and other rail favorites sold fractionally lower.

Union Carbide dropped off 1½ points to 30½ as the result of the cutting of the dividend to 50 cents a share quarterly. Electric Auto-lite joined the downward move of the motor stocks. Except for the feeble rally of United States Steel, American Can and a few other favorites, the market was inclined to sag in the second hour.

Cotton raised, nearly 50 cents a bale, while Wheat and Corn fell off fractionally. Call money was unchanged at 2½ per cent.

Unbridled Fear In Vladivostok, Reported, Natives Are Showing Unrest

By JAMES R. YOUNG
International News Service Staff Correspondent
Copyright, 1932, By International News Service

TOKYO, Feb. 25.—Soviet Russian authorities are fearful of a Japanese air invasion of Siberia and as a result constant martial law is in effect at Vladivostok and other Siberian cities, a European traveler just arrived from Vladivostok told International News Service today.

A thoroughly reliable observer, this traveler recounted a dramatic story of the fear which has overtaken the Soviets and revealed the dire circumstances to which the chief industries of Siberia, chiefly mining, have fallen during the last few months owing to food shortage, lack of proper equipment and unrest among the workers.

Troops Massing.
Numerous troop trains are leaving Vladivostok and Khabarovsk for the Manchurian border, he declared, revealing that Americans and Europeans are not permitted visas for these two cities, as the Soviet authorities do not wish the military activities or the repressive measures of the secret police to become known abroad.

Wholesale executions are being carried out by the Gpu, the Soviet secret police, he revealed, in an effort to stem the tide of industrial unrest, and widespread troop mobilization is under way to combat the threat of Japanese aggression.

Unrest Is Spread.
During the last four months, he revealed, the winter canny business has been doomed. Uprising in the Siberian coal mines have confronted the authorities with a grave problem of a dual nature—serving to spread unrest among the workers and to handicap the progress of industry.

As an example of the unbridled fear among Russians in Vladivostok, the traveler revealed, there is frequent talk of Japan's airplanes and dirigibles being sent over to conquer Vladivostok, Khabarovsk and Nikolaevsk.

Many Are Executed.
"Citizens are so frightened," he said, "and the government of Eastern Siberia so worried that a rowboat with an outboard motor and flying a Japanese flag at the stern could capture Vladivostok."

During his stay in Vladivostok, the traveler revealed, the G. P. U. arrested 400 white Russians and executed 150 of them.

Coal miners working in the Shkotovo mines near Nikolaevsk and Vladivostok rose up in protest against the shortage of food and impossible working conditions.

The rebellious miners were arrested and summary execution dealt out to about 1,500 of them, he declared.

Tractors Need Repairs.
The informant also revealed in detail the dire state of other industries in Siberia.

He estimated that 60 per cent. of the American tractors sent to Siberia, valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars, are out of commission. The machines are badly in need of repair, he said, and the Soviets have neither the money to buy new ones or to make replacements of parts.

SINGERS HOPE TO STOP SAXONS

Salem, Members Of National Saxon Lead To Visit City

Saxons are coming, not from Homestead but from Salem, and as a result members of the Eintracht Singers are getting ready to turn back the invaders. The Eintracht tried to turn back Homestead Saxons and came within a point of turning the trick, so they hope to make good against the Salemites Saturday night at St. Mary's basketball court.

There is no question but that the National Saxon League, of which Salem is a member, is composed of some of the classiest basketball teams in the country.

This was demonstrated by the way Homestead Saxons played. The Eintracht although only in basketball this season, has been playing some of the best teams in the tri-state district.

Last night they downed the Polish National Americans at Farrell and hope to turn back the Saxons of Salem Saturday. St. Andrews will be one of the preliminary game teams. The first game will start at 7:15 p. m.

Jury Is Drawn For April Court Session

Names Placed In Jury Wheel Are Written On Paper And Drawn "By Chance"

Sheriff Frank N. Johnston and Jury Commissioners Howard D. Leslie and William Newswander, drew a jury this morning for a session of common pleas court, beginning on Monday, April 11th. There will be an unusually large proportion of women on the jury, according to Sheriff Johnston. This just "happened" as the jury wheel, which is a round box having the appearance of a cheese box, is filled with names written on small slips of paper and folded. In drawing a jury one of the commissioners inserts his hand in a hole in the box and draws out a paper. It is opened, and the name on it recorded.

To Add New Names To Voting Lists

Registrars Who Sat Tuesday And Wednesday To Make Reports This Week

Registrars who sat at polling places throughout the county on Tuesday and Wednesday are expected to make their reports to the county commissioners office this week, in order that the new names may be added to those who will be eligible to vote at the spring primary.

The registration which was held this week was for the accommodation of those who had moved into new districts since the regular registration was made, or who for any reason, were missed when the registering assessors made their rounds. It is not expected that the number of new names to be added will be large.

That annual column of charming, intriguing and sometimes funny names, known as the Kentucky Derby by official nominations list, is released and one notes that the soft-eyed, slender little brown filly, Top Flight, is still a good favorite.

Despite her magnificent record as two-year-old champion, seven wins and no defeats, Top Flight throughout the winter has been scoffed at by many turf writers as no gentleman should ever scoff at a lady. Yet, Top Flight is still just that—the top filly—in the winter betting book.

The reasons given why Top Flight probably will be beaten by at least one of her boy friends in the May 7 classic at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., are many. One is that Top Flight hasn't run in a winter race. Two others are based on history: only four two-year-old champions—Worth, 1911; Old Rosebud, 1913; Regret, 1914; Morvich, 1921—won the Kentucky classic and only one filly, Regret, has been able to finish first.

Not far behind Top Flight in the guesses of the winter book players come Burning Blaze, Tick On, Mad Frump, Porteus, Clotho, Semaphore, Sazerac, Liberty Limited and Texas Knight.

Burning Blaze, winner of six races out of 12 and first in the Post and Paddock, Eastern Handicap and Richard Johnson stakes, apparently is at this time the outstanding menace to hopes for the star filly.

Those who favor Top Flight's chances regard her as the best filly since Regret, which is a grand compliment to the little brown runner. Top Flight's victories last year came in the $50,000 Belmont Futurity, the Clover, the Lassie, the Matron and the Pimlico Stakes, the Saratoga Special and the Spinaway.

Aside from Top Flight there are 114 other horses nominated for the race and exactly 100 of these will not see the barrier rise as the race probably will see but 15 start.

In the entry list as it now stands there are names to suit the fancy of everyone.

The bridge players ought to like I Pass, son of Thunder, and Two No Trumps. There's High Proof for the thirsty folks and Lucre and Heavy Sugar for the all-but-busted gentry. Black Board will take a bit of studying. Universe ought to have everything.

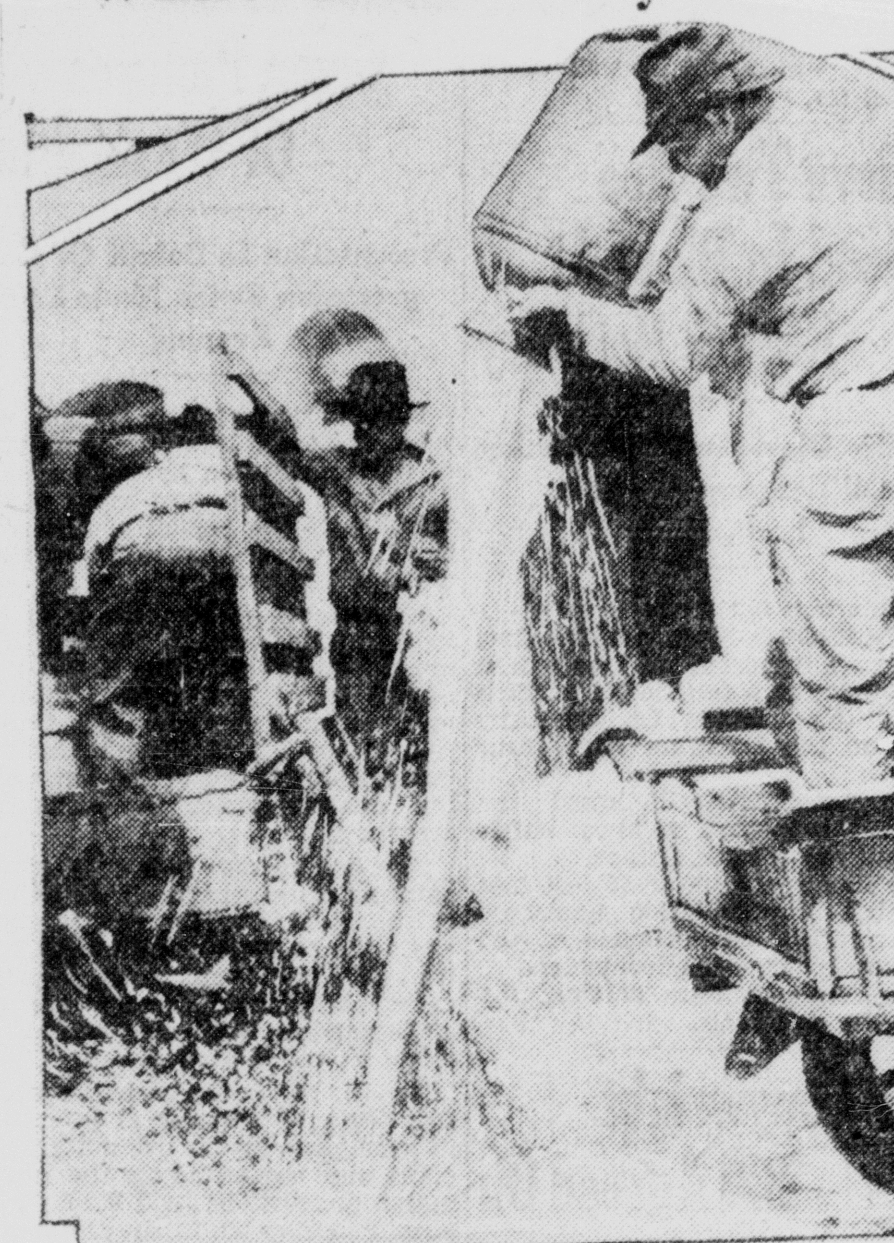

Rather forbidding names are Cold Check, Depression and Epidemic. Less disturbing are Easy, Flying Boy, Defier and Plaut. Most charming name probably is Blue Arab and the worst is Monday because the race is run on Saturday.

The price was cut from 20 cents to 16 cents per gallon. As this photo was made 1,500 gallons of milk were poured into the gutter.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

These are the days of the amateur physician. Four out of five may not have halitosis, but they certainly have colds with here and there a touch from the French boyden, La Grippe. And what a chance for the lad who knows medicine but doesn't practice for a living.

Soda, camphor, gargles and rubs, he invites you to try all of them and can point to his Aunt Maggie back in Weehawken who couldn't speak for four days, but who recovered her voice, her health and her disposition with a little baking soda in warm water.

Heard a speaker in Mercer the other night say that George Washington had camped in New Castle on his trip to Fort Le Boeuf in 1753, all of which fits in with the statement of Rev. P. C. Pearson some time ago. For several years an attempt to place a marker on or near the spot has been under way but so far has never got anywhere. This year should be a good chance.

Plenty of gold braid and titles to be represented at the dinner of Troop F tonight. Everything from a colonel with a chicken on his shoulder, to a private with some chicken in his hands.

It's Organization Day, an annual affair of every military unit in the state and replaces the former Mobilization Day. With the new army just around the corner and it's a short street too! the dinner tonight will be in the nature of a celebration.

Already there has been some talk about what the new army should be named. Plenty of good names from which to select, but our own suggestion is Major Joseph V. Cunningham. He it was who first started the troop here, and he it was who commanded it for years.

Coming back from the Philippines at the turn of the century, the then young Captain Cunningham conceived the idea of a troop of cavalry for the city. Almost single handedly he undertook the organization of the unit, and from that on until the trouble with Mexico in 1916 he captained it.

The border trouble made him a major and then came the World War. By this time he had done his bit, younger men were demanded for the rigorous overseas service, and like a lot of other efficient commanders, Major Cunningham was forced to step aside.

And so it seems to us, that when the new army is built, it wouldn't be a bad idea to name it in honor of the man who gave years of time and effort and a lot of money to the building of it. The groundwork which he established is responsible for the present efficient troop in many respects.

Sid Johns is home from the southwest with a lot of tales that turn you envious. Tales of balmy evenings in San Antonio, with Mexican kids twanging guitars and singing Spanish songs. Long rides across the desert with no snow sweeping into your eyes and no recreant breezes that bring gripe and cold to their wipers. Phoenix, with its lovely settings, and the whole southwestern country.

You will recall Dr. E. H. Perry who at one time practiced here. He is now a major in the United States Army, stationed at San Antonio in charge of the army hospital there. Mr. Johns visited him in San Antonio. Out in Phoenix, he visited Arthur Middleton, Dr. B. M. Berger, and Rev. Hamilton of Mount Jackson.
